Hospital Emergency Preparedness Program Update

November 21, 2019
Reminders

• Lines have been muted.
• Participant questions are encouraged utilizing the webinar dashboard.
• This offering is being recorded.
• PowerPoint, program recording and a Q&A document, if applicable, will be posted on the MHA website.
• Attendees are encouraged to complete a survey at the conclusion of the webinar.
Welcome and Purpose

- Focus: Hospital emergency management programs
- Target Audience: All staff responsible for these initiatives, regardless of allocated time
- Purpose:
  - Timely and appropriate information
  - High-level overview
  - Education and exercise opportunities
  - Statewide planning initiatives
- Format: Informational only
Today’s Program Topics

- MHA Safety and Preparedness Update
- Upcoming Education and Programming Engagement Opportunities
- Summary of CMS Burden Reduction Changes Related to Emergency Preparedness
MHA Safety and Preparedness Update
Upcoming Education and Programming Engagement Opportunities
Statewide Preparedness Education

- Emergency Preparedness Fundamentals Course
  - June 18, 2020; Jefferson City
- EMResource and eICS training, offered regionally, through Healthcare Coalitions
- Forthcoming programs:
  - Pediatric Disaster Competencies
  - Highly Infectious Disease (NETEC)
  - Earthquake Mitigation for Healthcare Organizations

Clock hours may be applied toward CHEP re-certification
Summary of CMS Burden Reduction Changes Related to Emergency Preparedness
CMS Burden Reduction Changes Related to Emergency Preparedness

- Effective November 29, 2019
- CMS Slides
Contact Information

Jaclyn E. Gatz, MPA, CHEP
jgatz@mhanet.com
573/893-3700 ext. 1330